Background
Established in 2002 in DC.

Limitations
Giving limited to Algeria, Burundi, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Guatemala, Guinea, India, Liberia, Mexico, Morocco, Pakistan, the Philippines, Sierra Leone, Thailand, Tunisia, and Uganda.
No support for activities directly or indirectly intended to support candidates for political office, businesses, government agencies, or micro-credit programs.
No grants to individuals, or for fundraising events, scholarships, stand-alone conferences, university-based research, or the construction of roads, bridges, buildings, wells, or medical facilities.

Purpose and Activities
The fund’s purpose is to support local, national, and regional human rights groups and networks abroad in becoming stronger, more effective, and better funded.

Program Area(s)
The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Grants Program
The fund’s grantmaking interest is currently focused on groups based and working on human rights situations. Organizations requesting funding must be working to defend, protect, or promote human rights; work could include mobilizing popular opinion through human rights skill-building and organizing; exposing abuse through documentation; addressing violations through direct action, policy or legal reform, legal aid, and litigation; networking and coalition building to further the effectiveness of human rights work; and capacity-building. Grants support campaigns that otherwise might falter for lack of needed resources, bring financial stability to groups, and help organizations take their work to the next level in terms of visibility and impact. Grants range between $5,000 and $30,000. Women-led human rights organizations are strongly encouraged to apply.

Background
Established in 1998 in NY.

Limitations
Giving in the U.S. and to Afghanistan, Argentina, Armenia, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Bolivia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cambodia, Chile, China, Colombia, East Timor, Ecuador, Egypt, El Salvador, Ethiopia, Georgia, Ghana, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Hungary, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Israel, Kenya, Laos, Malaysia, Mexico, Moldova, Mongolia, Nepal, Nicaragua, Nigeria, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Romania, Russia, Rwanda, Senegal, South Africa, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, Tanzania, Thailand, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Venezuela, Vietnam, Yemen, and Zambia.

Purpose and Activities
The organization is dedicated to helping the millions of children in the world who suffer from cleft lip and palate through free surgery for children, free training for doctors, and research to find a cure.

Program Area(s)
The grantmaker has identified the following area(s) of interest:

Education and Training Grants
Grants are available to help medical professionals, hospitals, and organizations improve the proficiency, safety, and quality of cleft care provided for poor children in developing countries. These grants may be used towards symposiums, workshops, team-building, one-on-one training, materials development, visiting professors, training missions, and other development initiatives. Preference will be given to those who are involved in Smile Train Treatment Partnerships.

Treatment and Education Grants
Grants are available to help support mission groups who provide treatment for poor children with clefts, education and training for medical professionals in developing countries who provide free medical services (i.e. surgery, orthodontia, and speech therapy) to children who would not otherwise receive care, and groups who provide for related expenses, such as equipment. These grants are also designed to help medical professionals in developing countries improve their proficiency, safety, and quality of cleft care provided. Eligible mission groups must be focused primarily on providing treatment for poor children with clefts in developing countries, have board-certified surgeons and anesthesiologists actively involved in cleft care as mission leaders, and adhere to all medical safety guidelines.

Treatment Grants
Grants are available to help medical professionals, hospitals, and organizations who provide treatment for poor children with clefts in developing countries, with the goals of helping children who would not otherwise receive care through free treatment (i.e. surgery, orthodontia, speech therapy), improving their quality of treatment, and providing for related expenses (such as equipment, outreach programs, patient travel, etc.). This grant is especially suitable for organization that may not meet the requirements to become a Treatment Partner.

Treatment Partnership
These partnerships are designed to help medical professionals, hospitals, and organizations who provide care for poor children with clefts in developing countries. These partnerships involve long-term commitment and offer the highest level of organizational support, with the goal of helping to provide free surgical treatment for children who would not otherwise be helped, and significantly increase the number of cleft surgeries performed at a quality hospital or center. Applicants must be able to meet the standards of the Smile Train Safety and Quality Improved Protocol and commit to a long-term partnership.
